Commemoration of the second anniversary of the London Bridge Attack

On Monday 3 June we will be marking the second anniversary of the attack which will happen during the Inquest. You are very welcome to join us for any or all of what will be happening on this evening.

5.30pm Memorial Evensong and Procession to the Tree of Healing

The service will be sung by the girls and men of the Cathedral Choir during which candles will be lit for those who died. At the end of the service all will be invited to process into the churchyard to the Tree of Healing, blessed at the First Anniversary Service by the Bishop of Southwark, where an Act of Remembrance will be held.

The Cathedral will remain open all evening for people to come in and out to light candles, to leave flowers at the Tree of Healing, to sit and pray.

9.58–10.16pm Compline (Night Prayer) begins at the moment that the attack began. The service concludes in silence at 10.16pm, the moment the attack was brought to an end. The Cathedral will then close.

*The leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. –
Revelation 22.2*

During your visit

If you would like to speak to someone

There will be Day Chaplains on duty each day who wear a blue ribbon and Cathedral badge around their neck. They are skilled listeners and will be happy to speak with you.

Canon Michael Rawson, the Sub Dean, would also be very pleased to meet with you. Please get in contact on michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org or 020 7367 6700.

Prayer

You may wish to pray the prayer which we used at the Cathedral in the aftermath of the attack.

Loving God, when terror came to our doorstep and stalked our streets you were there with us in the fear and agony.

Remain with us and with all those caught up in the horror of these events, the injured and distressed those who died and all who seek your peace which passes understanding. Amen.
