

Welcoming you
back to Bankside

● A roadmap to return to Bankside

Banksiders, we can't wait to welcome you back and reignite the buzz that makes Bankside so special and vibrant.

As you prepare to reoccupy your workplace, we've packaged practical initiatives and services to support with your return and incentivise staff to rediscover the neighbourhood.

Keeping connected digitally

Whilst you're physically away from Bankside, you can still stay connected to Bankside and the business community:

- Join the Bankside Exchange channel on Slack to share your reoccupation and reopening plans and get access to neighbourhood data and insight.
- Sign up to our newsletter to get regular updates on our online events and resources, including news on financial grants available.
- Download our Bankside for Storytellers guide. This is a great way to reacquaint staff, clients and customers, with the charm and story of Bankside, celebrating what makes our neighbourhood different.

Keeping connected digitally

Share our online events programme with your team:

- Look after your wellbeing and sign up to free Mental Health awareness training, monthly Plant Clubs and fitness classes.
- Take advantage of professional development opportunities that address new business challenges.
- Stay social with your team at our popular 'pub' quizzes.
- Uncover Bankside's rebellious past through virtual tours.

Back to Bankside

As Banksiders filter back to workplaces, we're here to support your transition:

- We're offering deep cleans to the exterior entrances of buildings.
- New on-street hand sanitisers and social distancing graphics can be found throughout the area. Contact us to request these for locations outdoors.
- Get a team lunch delivered directly to your workplace with our Bankside Lunch Club – delivery is free.
- Do you need to amend your recycling and waste collections? Contact Paper Round to update your schedule. If you're not signed up to our subsidised recycling scheme, get in touch.
- Get rid of waste electrical items through our W.E.E.E collections.
- If you're a consumer facing business, here are some other ways we can assist your reopening.
- Looking to recruit staff? We run a free recruitment service called EmploySE1 which matches local jobs with local people.
- After working from home for so long you may want to hire some space for hybrid team meetings or satellite office use. Check out Venues Bankside.

Back to Bankside

We've always advocated the benefits of green and active travel. To support you to travel back to Bankside:

- Join a guided Bankside Bike Train for inexperienced or first time cyclists.
- Lock up safely at our new secure cycle park.
- Test your commute by hiring one of our Bromptons or ebikes.
- Get a free health check on your two wheels at Dr Bike.
- We advocate for improvements to streets and spaces to increase capacity for cyclists and pedestrians. Get in touch if you have concerns about particular areas.
- If you're planning your journey to work using public transport, Transport for London publish the busiest times at various stations here. Use TfL's new travel app, TfL Go.

Rediscovering London's Other Side

We're all part of a special and vibrant neighbourhood, lucky enough to be able to play where we work.

- Sign up to a digital Buzz card and get access to local discounts and offers, supporting Bankside's businesses as they reopen.
- Make the most of Bankside's theatres, galleries and markets in your lunchbreak and after work. Follow @Bankside London on Instagram for reopening news.
- Walk on the quiet side to discover Bankside's medieval network of streets, full of history while reducing your exposure to air pollution. Download our walking map for quiet routes from transport hubs, and a list of green spaces in the area.
- Walk the Low Line alongside the mighty Victorian railways viaduct and listen to audio tracks created in response to specific sites.
- Our We're Backing Bankside campaign is a rallying call to drive support to Bankside's businesses. Download the assets and show solidarity through your own comms channels.
- We welcome to the area live music venue One Night Records, coffee spot Saint Nine, boxing gym 9Rounds, new Italian Deli, Prezzemoloe Vitale and St John Bakery.
